GROUND TO DEATH

Jay Kendrick Instantly Killed in Santa Fe Yards.

HIS BODY WAS SEVERED

Knocked Off Freight Train and Run Over While Switching.

Jay Kendrick, an Inexperienced switchman, was ground to death under the wheels of a freight train in the Santa Fe yards at 9:30 o'clock last night. Death was instantaneous.

death came to him easy, coming, as it sture in the extreme northwest was very what happened after the first wheels of three heavily laden freight cars passed day in Denver than here, and much over his body, which was completely sev- warmer in Miles City, Mont., on the ered. The unfortunate man was so herribly mangled that his remains will hardly bear inspection at the undertaking

The accident was a peculiar one and yardmaster. They were doing some switching in the yards, which, in that partien, was almost blocked with freight train in two. Young Kendrick was hanging on the side of one of the cars and Mr. Tobin was hanging on the rear of it. In the yards the tracks are so flose together that a person hanging on the side of a car can not clear the cars on the opposite track. Knowing that he was unacquainted with the yards Mr. Tohin called to him to get up on top. The warning was headed but he allowed his feet to mang over and the only theory to present is that they struck the end of the feight car on the other track and knocked him off. The other part of the train, which had been cut in two, was oming toward him about ten feet in the rear but the force of the fall stunned less to release himself from the perflous
